

TITLE: Global Employee Handbook
ORGANIZATION: Northwind Analytics, Inc.
DEPARTMENT: General
SENSITIVITY: Internal
VERSION: 4.0
EFFECTIVE_DATE: 2026-01-01

Global Employee Handbook

This handbook consolidates global policies that apply to all employees regardless of location, plus a country-specific appendix covering statutory employment terms in each market where the company operates. Where local law provides greater protection than company policy, local law governs.

Global Headcount by Region (Illustrative)

Table of Contents

1. Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy
2. Whistleblower Protection and Ethics Hotline
3. Workplace Health and Safety Policy
4. Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Policy
5. Intellectual Property and Confidentiality Policy
6. Social Media and External Communications Policy
7. Global Mobility and Relocation Policy
8. Contractor and Third-Party Code of Conduct
9. Environmental Sustainability (ESG) Policy
10. Conflict of Interest Policy
11. Anti-Money Laundering and Sanctions Compliance
12. Export Control Compliance Policy
13. Substance-Free Workplace Policy
14. Grievance Redressal Procedure
15. Country-Specific Employment Terms Appendix

Chapter 1: Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy

1.1 Policy Statement

The company prohibits offering, giving, soliciting, or accepting any bribe, kickback, or improper payment, whether directly or through a third party, in any jurisdiction in which it operates. This policy applies to all employees, contractors, and agents acting on the company's behalf, and complies with the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, the UK Bribery Act, and equivalent local anti-corruption laws.

1.2 Gifts and Hospitality

Employees may accept or offer reasonable business gifts or hospitality (meals, modest promotional items) provided they are not intended to influence a business decision and do not exceed $150 in value. Gifts from government officials or above this threshold require pre-approval from the Compliance team and must be logged in the Gifts and Hospitality Register.

1.3 Facilitation Payments

Facilitation payments (small payments to expedite routine government action) are strictly prohibited, even in jurisdictions where locally customary. Any employee pressured to make such a payment must refuse and report the incident to Compliance within 24 hours.

1.4 Third-Party Due Diligence

Agents, distributors, and consultants acting on the company's behalf in high-risk markets must undergo anti-corruption due diligence before engagement, including screening against sanctions and politically-exposed-persons lists, renewed annually for active relationships.

1.5 Reporting Violations

Suspected violations must be reported to compliance@company.com or the anonymous Ethics Hotline. Retaliation against a good-faith reporter is prohibited and independently grounds for disciplinary action.

Chapter 2: Whistleblower Protection and Ethics Hotline

2.1 Purpose

This policy establishes a confidential channel for reporting suspected violations of law, regulation, or company policy, and guarantees protection from retaliation for good-faith reports.

2.2 How to Report

Reports can be submitted via the Ethics Hotline (available 24/7, operated by an independent third party), by email to ethics@company.com, or directly to the Audit Committee for matters involving senior leadership. Anonymous reporting is supported in all channels.

2.3 Investigation Process

All reports are triaged within 3 business days and assigned to Legal, Compliance, HR, or Internal Audit depending on subject matter. Investigations are completed within 45 days for standard cases; complex financial or legal matters may take longer, with status updates provided to the reporter where contact information is available.

2.4 Non-Retaliation Guarantee

Retaliation against anyone who reports a concern in good faith, even if the concern is later not substantiated, is a serious violation of this policy. Employees who believe they have experienced retaliation should contact HR or the Ethics Hotline immediately.

2.5 Scope

Reportable matters include financial misconduct, fraud, safety violations, harassment, discrimination, environmental violations, data privacy breaches, antitrust concerns, and any violation of the Code of Conduct.

Chapter 3: Workplace Health and Safety Policy

3.1 General Obligations

The company is committed to providing a safe working environment for all employees, contractors, and visitors, and complies with applicable occupational health and safety regulations in each jurisdiction of operation.

3.2 Incident Reporting

All workplace injuries, near-misses, and safety hazards must be reported to Facilities and the employee's manager within 24 hours using the Safety Incident Form. Serious injuries requiring medical treatment must be reported immediately by phone to the Safety Hotline.

3.3 Emergency Procedures

Each office maintains posted evacuation routes, assembly points, and floor wardens. Fire drills are conducted at least twice per year. Employees working from home are provided an ergonomic assessment checklist and a one-time home office safety stipend.

3.4 Ergonomics

Employees experiencing discomfort related to their workstation setup (office or home) may request an ergonomic assessment through the IT Service Portal at no cost, including adjustable chairs, monitor arms, or keyboard trays where medically recommended.

3.5 Workplace Violence Prevention

Threats, intimidation, or acts of violence in the workplace, in any form, are grounds for immediate termination and may be reported to local law enforcement. Employees who feel unsafe should contact Security or HR immediately; a Threat Assessment Team convenes within 24 hours of any credible report.

Chapter 4: Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Policy

4.1 Commitment

The company is committed to building a workforce that reflects the diversity of the communities it serves and to fostering an inclusive culture where all employees can do their best work, regardless of race, gender, age, disability, sexual orientation, religion, or background.

4.2 Inclusive Hiring

Hiring panels for roles at the Manager level and above must include at least one member from a different function or background than the hiring manager, and job postings are reviewed for inclusive language before publishing.

4.3 Employee Resource Groups

The company sponsors Employee Resource Groups (ERGs) including Women@Company, Pride@Company, Parents@Company, and Global Diversity Network, each with an annual budget for events and each open to allies as well as members of the represented group.

4.4 Pay Equity

An annual pay equity audit is conducted by an independent third party, reviewing compensation across gender and ethnicity for comparable roles; identified gaps are remediated within the following compensation cycle.

4.5 Accessibility

The company provides reasonable accommodations for employees and candidates with disabilities, including assistive technology, accessible facilities, and flexible interview formats. Accommodation requests are made through HR and processed within 10 business days.

Chapter 5: Intellectual Property and Confidentiality Policy

5.1 Ownership of Work Product

All inventions, code, designs, and other work product created by an employee within the scope of their employment, using company resources, or relating to the company's business, belong to the company, consistent with the terms of the employment agreement.

5.2 Confidential Information

Confidential information includes non-public technical, financial, customer, and strategic information. Employees must not disclose confidential information to unauthorized parties during or after employment, and must return or destroy all confidential materials upon termination.

5.3 Open Source Usage

Use of open-source software in company products must be reviewed by the Open Source Review Board and comply with approved license types; copyleft licenses (e.g., GPL) require Legal sign-off before use in any distributed product.

5.4 Publications and Patents

Employees wishing to publish research or present at external conferences must submit materials for IP and confidentiality review at least 3 weeks in advance. Patent-eligible inventions must be disclosed to Legal via the Invention Disclosure Form before any public disclosure.

5.5 Prior Inventions

Employees must disclose any pre-existing inventions or IP they wish to exclude from company ownership at the time of hire, listed in an addendum to their offer letter.

Chapter 6: Social Media and External Communications Policy

6.1 Personal Social Media Use

Employees may identify as working for the company on personal social media but must include a disclaimer that views expressed are their own. Employees must not share confidential, financial, or unreleased product information on any personal or public platform.

6.2 Speaking on Behalf of the Company

Only employees designated as official spokespeople by Corporate Communications may speak to media, analysts, or at public events on behalf of the company. All media inquiries should be redirected to press@company.com.

6.3 Official Company Accounts

Access to official company social media accounts is granted only to Marketing/Comms team members and requires MFA. All public-facing posts from official accounts require a second-person review before publishing.

6.4 Crisis Communications

In the event of a significant incident (security breach, safety incident, major outage), only Corporate Communications may issue public statements; employees should refrain from commenting publicly and direct questions to the internal Crisis Communications channel.

Chapter 7: Global Mobility and Relocation Policy

7.1 Eligibility

Employees relocating at the company's request (international transfer, acquisition integration) are eligible for relocation support; employees relocating for personal reasons may request support subject to manager and HR approval, with reduced benefits.

7.2 Relocation Benefits

Company-initiated international relocations include shipping of household goods (up to a weight limit based on family size), temporary housing for up to 60 days, visa/immigration support, and a one-time settling-in allowance.

7.3 Tax Equalization

For international assignments exceeding 12 months, the company provides tax equalization support so the employee's total tax burden approximates what they would have paid in their home country, administered through the company's global mobility tax partner.

7.4 Immigration Compliance

The company sponsors work visas for eligible roles where a qualified local candidate is not available, subject to immigration law in the destination country. Employees on sponsored visas must notify HR immediately of any change in role, location, or employment status that could affect visa validity.

7.5 Repatriation

Employees completing an international assignment are guaranteed a role of comparable level upon return, with repatriation support including relocation logistics and a re-onboarding session with HR.

Chapter 8: Contractor and Third-Party Code of Conduct

8.1 Scope

This code applies to all contractors, consultants, temporary staff, and third-party vendors performing work for or on behalf of the company.

8.2 Standards of Conduct

Third parties must comply with the company's Anti-Bribery, Data Privacy, and Health and Safety policies while engaged, and must not represent themselves as employees of the company without authorization.

8.3 Data Access

Contractors granted access to company systems are subject to the same access-control and data-handling requirements as employees, including least-privilege access and mandatory security training before system access is granted.

8.4 Background Checks

Contractors with access to Confidential or Restricted data, financial systems, or facilities must pass a background check equivalent to that required for employees in comparable roles, administered by the engaging manager and HR.

8.5 Termination of Engagement

Contractor system access and badge access must be revoked within 24 hours of the engagement ending, tracked via the same offboarding checklist used for employees.

Chapter 9: Environmental Sustainability (ESG) Policy

9.1 Commitment

The company has committed to achieving net-zero greenhouse gas emissions across its own operations by 2035, and reports progress annually in its public Sustainability Report.

9.2 Office Operations

All offices over 50 employees are required to implement waste-sorting programs, and new office leases prioritize buildings with a recognized green building certification where commercially feasible.

9.3 Business Travel

Employees are encouraged to use virtual meetings in place of travel where practical; for necessary travel, the company purchases carbon offsets for all air travel booked through the corporate travel portal.

9.4 Supplier Standards

Suppliers representing more than $1M in annual spend are required to complete an annual ESG questionnaire covering emissions, labor practices, and environmental compliance as a condition of contract renewal.

9.5 Employee Engagement

The Green@Company employee resource group organizes an annual sustainability week and administers a small grants program for employee-led sustainability initiatives in company offices.

Chapter 10: Conflict of Interest Policy

10.1 Definition

A conflict of interest arises when an employee's personal interests, relationships, or outside activities could improperly influence, or appear to influence, their judgment in performing company duties.

10.2 Disclosure Obligation

Employees must disclose potential conflicts of interest to their manager and Compliance as soon as they arise, including financial interests in a competitor, supplier, or customer, or a close personal relationship with a subordinate, peer reviewer, or vendor contact.

10.3 Outside Employment

Employees must obtain prior written approval from their manager before accepting outside employment or board positions that could reasonably create a conflict with their role or compete for their working time.

10.4 Related-Party Transactions

Any business transaction between the company and an entity in which an employee or their immediate family has a significant financial interest must be disclosed to and approved by Finance and Compliance before proceeding.

10.5 Annual Certification

All employees at Manager level and above complete an annual Conflict of Interest certification through the HR portal; new conflicts identified mid-year must be disclosed within 10 business days of arising.

Chapter 11: Anti-Money Laundering and Sanctions Compliance

11.1 Policy Statement

The company prohibits knowingly facilitating money laundering, terrorist financing, or transactions with sanctioned individuals, entities, or countries, and maintains screening controls across customer onboarding, vendor payments, and international transfers.

11.2 Customer and Vendor Screening

New customers and vendors above defined risk thresholds are screened against OFAC, UN, and EU sanctions lists during onboarding, with screening refreshed quarterly for active relationships in higher-risk regions.

11.3 Red Flags

Employees in Finance and Sales roles receive annual training on red flags for money laundering, including unusual payment structuring, requests for payment via unrelated third parties, and reluctance to provide standard KYC documentation.

11.4 Escalation

Any transaction or relationship raising sanctions or AML concerns must be escalated to Compliance before proceeding; Compliance has authority to place a hold on any transaction pending review.

Chapter 12: Export Control Compliance Policy

12.1 Scope

This policy governs the export, re-export, or transfer of controlled technology, software, or technical data subject to export control regulations, including U.S. EAR and ITAR where applicable to the company's products.

12.2 Classification

Products and technical data are classified under applicable export control regimes by the Trade Compliance team before release to any non-employee, including open-source contributions containing controlled cryptography.

12.3 Restricted Party Screening

Sales and partnership teams must screen counterparties against restricted and denied party lists before finalizing any transaction involving controlled technology.

12.4 Employee Obligations

Employees, including foreign national employees, may require deemed export authorization before being granted access to certain controlled technical data; Trade Compliance determines applicability on a role-by-role basis during onboarding for affected teams.

Chapter 13: Substance-Free Workplace Policy

13.1 Policy Statement

Employees are prohibited from being under the influence of illegal drugs or alcohol while performing work duties, operating company vehicles or equipment, or on company premises during working hours, except at company-sanctioned events where alcohol is served responsibly.

13.2 Support Resources

Employees struggling with substance use are encouraged to seek confidential support through the Employee Assistance Program (EAP), which offers counseling and treatment referrals at no cost, without risk of disciplinary action for voluntarily seeking help.

13.3 Testing

Where legally permitted, testing may be required following a workplace safety incident or upon reasonable suspicion, conducted in accordance with local law and with appropriate confidentiality protections.

13.4 Violations

Violations of this policy, distinct from voluntary disclosure and treatment-seeking, may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination, consistent with applicable local law.

Chapter 14: Grievance Redressal Procedure

14.1 Purpose

This procedure provides employees a structured path to raise workplace concerns that do not rise to the level of a Code of Conduct or harassment report, such as disputes with a manager, working conditions, or perceived unfair treatment.

14.2 Step 1: Informal Resolution

Employees are encouraged to first raise the concern directly with their manager or the other party involved, where comfortable doing so. Most grievances are resolved at this stage within 5 business days.

14.3 Step 2: Formal Submission

If informal resolution is not appropriate or unsuccessful, the employee may submit a formal grievance to HR via the HR portal. HR acknowledges receipt within 2 business days and completes a review within 15 business days.

14.4 Step 3: Appeal

If the employee is unsatisfied with the outcome, they may appeal to a senior HR Business Partner not involved in the original review, within 10 business days of the decision. The appeal decision is final.

14.5 Confidentiality

Grievance details are shared only with those who need to know to investigate and resolve the matter, and retaliation against an employee for raising a grievance in good faith is prohibited.

Country-Specific Employment Terms Appendix

The table below summarizes statutory and company-policy employment terms by country. This appendix is illustrative and does not replace consultation with local HR/Legal for specific cases; statutory minimums change periodically and local counsel should be consulted for authoritative current figures.

Country	Annual Leave	Sick Leave	Notice Period	Probation	Public Holidays	Data Privacy Law	Min. Work Age	Standard Week
India	21 days	12 days	30 days	6 months	10-14 (state-dependent)	Digital Personal Data Protection Act (DPDPA) 2023	18	48 hours (6 days)
United States	Varies by state; no federal minimum (company policy: 21 days)	Varies by state (company policy: 12 days)	At-will; company policy 2 weeks notice requested	90 days	10 (federal)	State-level (e.g., CCPA in California); no comprehensive federal law	16(with restrictions)	40 hours
United Kingdom	28 days (incl. bank holidays)	Statutory Sick Pay from day 4	1 week per year of service, up to 12 weeks	3 months	8	UK GDPR / Data Protection Act 2018	16(with restrictions)	48 hours (opt-out available)
Germany	24 working days minimum (company policy: 28 days)	Continued pay up to 6 weeks via employer	4 weeks to 15th or end of month	6 months	9-13 (state-dependent)	GDPR / Bundesdatenschutzgesetz (BDSG)	15(with restrictions)	48 hours, typically 35-40
France	25 working days (5 weeks)	50% pay from day 4, employer top-up per CBA	1-3 months depending on seniority	2-4 months (role-dependent)	11	GDPR / Loi Informatique et Libertes	16(with restrictions)	35 hours statutory
Canada	2 weeks minimum (federally regulated); company policy 20 days	Varies by province	1-8 weeks depending on tenure and province	3 months	9-11 (province-dependent)	PIPEDA (federal); provincial equivalents	Varies by province (14-16)	40 hours (varies by province)
Australia	20 days (4 weeks)	10 days personal/carer's leave	1-5 weeks depending on tenure	6 months	8-13 (state-dependent)	Privacy Act 1988	15(with restrictions)	38 hours
Singapore	7-14 days depending on tenure (company policy: 18 days)	14 days (outpatient), 60 days (hospitalization)	1 month	3-6 months	11	Personal Data Protection Act (PDPA)	13(with restrictions)	44 hours

Country	Annual Leave	Sick Leave	Notice Period	Probation	Public Holidays	Data Privacy Law	Min. Work Age	Standard Week
Japan	10-20 days depending on tenure	No statutory paid sick leave; company policy 10 days	30 days	3-6 months	16	Act on Protection of Personal Information (APPI)	15	40 hours
Brazil	30 days annually	Employer pays first 15 days, INSS thereafter	30 days minimum, plus 3 days per year of service	45-90 days	12 (national)	Lei Geral de Protecao de Dados (LGPD)	16 (14 as apprentice)	44 hours
Mexico	12 days (increases with tenure)	Covered by IMSS after 3 days	No statutory notice; severance applies	30 days (up to 180 for specialized roles)	8	Ley Federal de Proteccion de Datos Personales	15	48 hours
United Arab Emirates	30 calendar days	90 days (varying pay levels)	30-90 days per contract	6 months	13 (approx., varies yearly)	UAE PDPL (Federal Decree-Law No. 45 of 2021)	18 (15 with restrictions)	48 hours
South Africa	21 consecutive days	30 days per 36-month cycle	1-4 weeks depending on tenure	3-6 months	12	Protection of Personal Information Act (POPIA)	15	45 hours
Netherlands	20 days minimum (company policy: 25 days)	Employer pays up to 2 years at 70%+ of salary	1 month (statutory minimum)	1-2 months	8-9	GDPR / UAVG	16(with restrictions)	40 hours
Ireland	20 days minimum (company policy: 25 days)	Statutory Sick Pay from day 1 (phased increase)	1-8 weeks depending on tenure	6-11 months	10	GDPR / Data Protection Act 2018	16(with restrictions)	48 hours (opt-out available)

Notice Period Distribution Across Countries

Appendix Notes: Country-Specific Guidance

India

Employees based in India are subject to local statutory requirements in addition to global company policy. Annual leave entitlement is 21 days, and sick leave follows 12 days. The standard notice period for resignation or termination is 30 days, with a probationary period of 6 months for new hires. The jurisdiction observes approximately 10-14 (state-dependent) public holidays annually. Data handling for employees and customers in this jurisdiction must comply with Digital Personal Data Protection Act (DPDPA) 2023, in addition to the company's global Data Privacy Policy. The minimum legal working age is 18, and the standard work week is 48 hours (6 days). Local HR should be consulted for country-specific onboarding paperwork, tax withholding forms, and statutory benefit enrollments not covered in this summary.

United States

Employees based in United States are subject to local statutory requirements in addition to global company policy. Annual leave entitlement is varies by state; no federal minimum (company policy: 21 days), and sick leave follows varies by state (company policy: 12 days). The standard notice period for resignation or termination is at-will; company policy 2 weeks notice requested, with a probationary period of 90 days for new hires. The jurisdiction observes approximately 10 (federal) public holidays annually. Data handling for employees and customers in this jurisdiction must comply with State-level (e.g., CCPA in California); no comprehensive federal law, in addition to the company's global Data Privacy Policy. The minimum legal working age is 16 (with restrictions), and the standard work week is 40 hours. Local HR should be consulted for country-specific onboarding paperwork, tax withholding forms, and statutory benefit enrollments not covered in this summary.

United Kingdom

Employees based in United Kingdom are subject to local statutory requirements in addition to global company policy. Annual leave entitlement is 28 days (incl. bank holidays), and sick leave follows statutory sick pay from day 4. The standard notice period for resignation or termination is 1 week per year of service, up to 12 weeks, with a probationary period of 3 months for new hires. The jurisdiction observes approximately 8 public holidays annually. Data handling for employees and customers in this jurisdiction must comply with UK GDPR / Data Protection Act 2018, in addition to the company's global Data Privacy Policy. The minimum legal working age is 16 (with restrictions), and the standard work week is 48 hours (opt-out available). Local HR should be consulted for country-specific onboarding paperwork, tax withholding forms, and statutory benefit enrollments not covered in this summary.

Germany

Employees based in Germany are subject to local statutory requirements in addition to global company policy. Annual leave entitlement is 24 working days minimum (company policy: 28 days), and sick leave follows continued pay up to 6 weeks via employer. The standard notice period for resignation or termination is 4 weeks to 15th or end of month, with a probationary period of 6 months for new hires. The jurisdiction observes approximately 9-13 (state-dependent) public holidays annually. Data handling for employees and customers in this jurisdiction must comply with GDPR / Bundesdatenschutzgesetz (BDSG), in addition to the company's global Data Privacy Policy. The minimum legal working age is 15 (with restrictions), and the standard work week is 48 hours, typically 35-40. Local HR should be consulted for country-specific onboarding paperwork, tax withholding forms, and statutory benefit enrollments not covered in this summary.

France

Employees based in France are subject to local statutory requirements in addition to global company policy. Annual leave entitlement is 25 working days (5 weeks), and sick leave follows 50% pay from day 4, employer top-up per cba. The standard notice period for resignation or termination is 1-3 months depending on seniority, with a probationary period of 2-4 months (role-dependent) for new hires. The jurisdiction observes approximately 11 public holidays annually. Data handling for employees and customers in this jurisdiction must comply with GDPR / Loi Informatique et Libertés, in addition to the company's global Data Privacy Policy. The minimum legal working age is 16 (with restrictions), and the standard work week is 35 hours statutory. Local HR should be consulted for country-specific onboarding paperwork, tax withholding forms, and statutory benefit enrollments not covered in this summary.

Canada

Employees based in Canada are subject to local statutory requirements in addition to global company policy. Annual leave entitlement is 2 weeks minimum (federally regulated); company policy 20 days, and sick leave follows varies by province. The standard notice period for resignation or termination is 1-8 weeks depending on tenure and province, with a probationary period of 3 months for new hires. The jurisdiction observes approximately 9-11 (province-dependent) public holidays annually. Data handling for employees and customers in this jurisdiction must comply with PIPEDA (federal); provincial equivalents, in addition to the company's global Data Privacy Policy. The minimum legal working age is Varies by province (14-16), and the standard work week is 40 hours (varies by province). Local HR should be consulted for country-specific onboarding paperwork, tax withholding forms, and statutory benefit enrollments not covered in this summary.

Australia

Employees based in Australia are subject to local statutory requirements in addition to global company policy. Annual leave entitlement is 20 days (4 weeks), and sick leave follows 10 days personal/carer's leave. The standard notice period for resignation or termination is 1-5 weeks depending on tenure, with a probationary period of 6 months for new hires. The jurisdiction observes approximately 8-13 (state-dependent) public holidays annually. Data handling for employees and customers in this jurisdiction must comply with Privacy Act 1988, in addition to the company's global Data Privacy Policy. The minimum legal working age is 15 (with restrictions), and the standard work week is 38 hours. Local HR should be consulted for country-specific onboarding paperwork, tax withholding forms, and statutory benefit enrollments not covered in this summary.

Singapore

Employees based in Singapore are subject to local statutory requirements in addition to global company policy. Annual leave entitlement is 7-14 days depending on tenure (company policy: 18 days), and sick leave follows 14 days (outpatient), 60 days (hospitalization). The standard notice period for resignation or termination is 1 month, with a probationary period of 3-6 months for new hires. The jurisdiction observes approximately 11 public holidays annually. Data handling for employees and customers in this jurisdiction must comply with Personal Data Protection Act (PDPA), in addition to the company's global Data Privacy Policy. The minimum legal working age is 13 (with restrictions), and the standard work week is 44 hours. Local HR should be consulted for country-specific onboarding paperwork, tax withholding forms, and statutory benefit enrollments not covered in this summary.

Japan

Employees based in Japan are subject to local statutory requirements in addition to global company policy. Annual leave entitlement is 10-20 days depending on tenure, and sick leave follows no statutory paid sick leave; company policy 10 days. The standard notice period for resignation or termination is 30 days, with a probationary period of 3-6 months for new hires. The jurisdiction observes approximately 16 public holidays annually. Data handling for employees and customers in this jurisdiction must comply with Act on Protection of Personal Information (APPI), in addition to the company's global Data Privacy Policy. The minimum legal working age is 15, and the standard work week is 40 hours. Local HR should be consulted for country-specific onboarding paperwork, tax withholding forms, and statutory benefit enrollments not covered in this summary.

Brazil

Employees based in Brazil are subject to local statutory requirements in addition to global company policy. Annual leave entitlement is 30 days annually, and sick leave follows employer pays first 15 days, inss thereafter. The standard notice period for resignation or termination is 30 days minimum, plus 3 days per year of service, with a probationary period of 45-90 days for new hires. The jurisdiction observes approximately 12 (national) public holidays annually. Data handling for employees and customers in this jurisdiction must comply with Lei Geral de Protecao de Dados (LGPD), in addition to the company's global Data Privacy Policy. The minimum legal working age is 16 (14 as apprentice), and the standard work week is 44 hours. Local HR should be consulted for country-specific onboarding paperwork, tax withholding forms, and statutory benefit enrollments not covered in this summary.

Mexico

Employees based in Mexico are subject to local statutory requirements in addition to global company policy. Annual leave entitlement is 12 days (increases with tenure), and sick leave follows covered by imss after 3 days. The standard notice period for resignation or termination is no statutory notice; severance applies, with a probationary period of 30 days (up to 180 for specialized roles) for new hires. The jurisdiction observes approximately 8 public holidays annually. Data handling for employees and customers in this jurisdiction must comply with Ley Federal de Proteccion de Datos Personales, in addition to the company's global Data Privacy Policy. The minimum legal working age is 15, and the standard work week is 48 hours. Local HR should be consulted for country-specific onboarding paperwork, tax withholding forms, and statutory benefit enrollments not covered in this summary.

United Arab Emirates

Employees based in United Arab Emirates are subject to local statutory requirements in addition to global company policy. Annual leave entitlement is 30 calendar days, and sick leave follows 90 days (varying pay levels). The standard notice period for resignation or termination is 30-90 days per contract, with a probationary period of 6 months for new hires. The jurisdiction observes approximately 13 (approx., varies yearly) public holidays annually. Data handling for employees and customers in this jurisdiction must comply with UAE PDPL (Federal Decree-Law No. 45 of 2021), in addition to the company's global Data Privacy Policy. The minimum legal working age is 18 (15 with restrictions), and the standard work week is 48 hours. Local HR should be consulted for country-specific onboarding paperwork, tax withholding forms, and statutory benefit enrollments not covered in this summary.

South Africa

Employees based in South Africa are subject to local statutory requirements in addition to global company policy. Annual leave entitlement is 21 consecutive days, and sick leave follows 30 days per 36-month cycle. The standard notice period for resignation or termination is 1-4 weeks depending on tenure, with a probationary period of 3-6 months for new hires. The jurisdiction observes approximately 12 public holidays annually. Data handling for employees and customers in this jurisdiction must comply with Protection of Personal Information Act (POPIA), in addition to the company's global Data Privacy Policy. The minimum legal working age is 15, and the standard work week is 45 hours. Local HR should be consulted for country-specific onboarding paperwork, tax withholding forms, and statutory benefit enrollments not covered in this summary.

Netherlands

Employees based in Netherlands are subject to local statutory requirements in addition to global company policy. Annual leave entitlement is 20 days minimum (company policy: 25 days), and sick leave follows employer pays up to 2 years at 70%+ of salary. The standard notice period for resignation or termination is 1 month (statutory minimum), with a probationary period of 1-2 months for new hires. The jurisdiction observes approximately 8-9 public holidays annually. Data handling for employees and customers in this jurisdiction must comply with GDPR / UAVG, in addition to the company's global Data Privacy Policy. The minimum legal working age is 16 (with restrictions), and the standard work week is 40 hours. Local HR should be consulted for country-specific onboarding paperwork, tax withholding forms, and statutory benefit enrollments not covered in this summary.

Ireland

Employees based in Ireland are subject to local statutory requirements in addition to global company policy. Annual leave entitlement is 20 days minimum (company policy: 25 days), and sick leave follows statutory sick pay from day 1 (phased increase). The standard notice period for resignation or termination is 1-8 weeks depending on tenure, with a probationary period of 6-11 months for new hires. The jurisdiction observes approximately 10 public holidays annually. Data handling for employees and customers in this jurisdiction must comply with GDPR / Data Protection Act 2018, in addition to the company's global Data Privacy Policy. The minimum legal working age is 16 (with restrictions), and the standard work week is 48 hours (opt-out available). Local HR should be consulted for country-specific onboarding paperwork, tax withholding forms, and statutory benefit enrollments not covered in this summary.